

leverist.de #BusinessVsCovid19

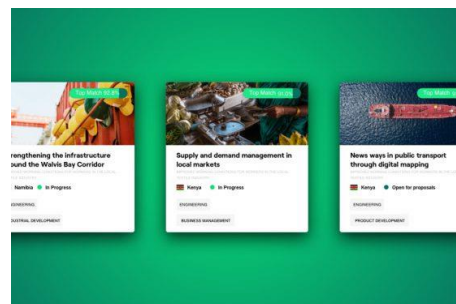

*Business and development cooperation.
United against Covid19.*

Seek and find solutions to challenges arising through Covid19.
Digital, immediate, across the globe. Do Business. Do Good.

The current health crisis creates new needs every day in Europe and in developing and emerging countries. Companies worldwide are looking for new reliable partners or suppliers in times of crisis.

Development cooperation is responding to the health and economic challenges of the Corona crisis with a digital product. Close cooperation with companies is essential for that. leverist.de combines demands and solutions to directly support developing and emerging countries in overcoming the crisis.

Are you looking for current business opportunities?

On the free matchmaking platform leverist.de as well as on the special page leverist.de/Covid19 you can find concrete business opportunities for Corona-specific challenges and beyond.

Do you have a solution for the projects and companies you are looking for? Create a company profile on leverist.de with four clicks/in two minutes and get in direct contact with the experts on site.

Are you looking for new partners or solutions in times of the Corona crisis? Contact your contact person in development cooperation or Leverist@giz.de to place your crisis-relevant business demands on leverist.de/Covid19.

Why leverist.de?

leverist.de is a platform of the German development cooperation (GIZ). 107 business opportunities from 27 partner countries have already been posted and are contacted daily by companies. Since autumn 2019 we have successfully brought together more than 80 companies with projects in developing countries.
